

Javier González Casares

Computer Engineering

I'm a highly proactive person who's always working on new projects and learning something new. Strong communication and teamwork skills are my main strengths. Passionate about cybersecurity and artificial intelligence.

Experience

Internship in the cybersecurity team at COEX Navantia Systems

June 2025 - September 2025

Internship at Mynsait Cyber (Indra)

November 2025 - Present

Collaborator with the Spanish National Police in investigations on web scams

June 2025 - Present

Reported vulnerabilities in Instagram via Meta Bug Bounty

Facebook report #3950957211809485

Cybersecurity and Networks & Free Software Classroom - EPSC

September 2021 - September 2025

- Ex-Member of the Caliphal Hounds CTF team for two years, ranked #1 in Spain in 2025 and #2 in Spain on CTFTIME in 2024.
- Winner of the 1st prize at the Hackademics Forum III CTF.
- Week 4 Winner — "El Bug de la Semana" (INCIBE & IMMUNE 2025).
- 1st place in Hackathon on two occasions.

Creator of vulnerable VMs - MSc Cybersecurity, Universidad Europea de Madrid

Debate Team - La Salle Córdoba

September 2018 - June 2021

- Two-time champion in debate competitions.
- Debate mentor.

Education

Degree in Computer Engineering - Specialization in Computing

Escuela Politécnica Superior de Córdoba / 2021 - 2025

Software Architecture Course

Escuela Politécnica Superior de Córdoba / 2024

Master's Degree in Offensive Security

UCAM / October 2025 - August 2026

Offensive Security Certified Professional (OSCP)

Currently in process

Skills

HackTheBox/TryHackMe MySQL/Mongo/MariaDB

Nmap/Wireshark/Burp/ Metasploit/Nessus Python/Bash/C/C++

Forensic Analysis

Bug Bounty

Audit Reports

CTF

Languages

English - B2